1. Significant Items:

Nothing to report.

2. Other Activities:

- a. IO#4 ended on Friday, 7 December 1956. Seventy-one persons completed the course and the student comments were again favorable. Two areas of minor weakness were detected. As a result of the comments work has been started to improve them.
- b. A meeting of the staff of Introduction to Intelligence was held on Friday, 7 December, to organize more efficient procedures for handling the final administration of the course. These procedures were used on Friday afternoon and resulted in the saving of approximately fifteen minutes. In addition, the checking of handouts by the Training Assistant was somewhat facilitated by the new procedures.
- c. A meeting of the staff of Introduction to Intelligence was held on Tuesday, 11 December, to discuss further plans for scheduling of IO#5 which begins in January 1957. Several changes are in mind and require only the solving of administrative details before being put into effect.
